EDEN VALLEY RIESLING 2004

This Eden Valley riesling is an adventure between riesling kings Jeffrey Grosset and Robert Hill Smith. It is a blend of wines made individually by Grosset at Clare and Hill Smith at Angaston from grapes grown in three Eden Valley vineyards. It's a great young riesling with a huge future. There's a breathtaking balance of power and precision: clean floral and lightly citrusy aromas lead into a palate of great finesse. It's not so steely that you can't enjoy it now, but is an ideal drink-or-keep proposition. Cellar some and watch it grow.
