

WINEFRONT

M O N T H L Y

NOVEMBER 2005

This is just about perfect. The strength, and clean precision, of the lime-flavour that bursts into your mouth on sipping this is quite extraordinary. That would be enough to recommend it, but there's more: and the 'more' is built into the background, rather than over the top. Slate, metal, dried flowers and ever-so-dry citrus - this is pitched, and delivered, perfectly. An outstanding wine. Drink: 2005-2019. Campbell Mattinson.
