

...mesh Eden Valley riesling is a blend of the wines crafted from three Eden Valley vineyards by two separate regional riesling kings, each turning their half share of fruit into the kind of riesling they would usually make from their home turf.

This year's mesh was one of the shining examples from a recent Eden Valley tasting that highlighted the district's unique reislng characters...

EDEN VALLEY RIESLING

2009

This combination of Jeffrey Grosset's and Robert Hill Smith's Yalumba resources has created a wine with classic citrus blossom and a little lemon creaminess for a fuller profile, though a solid wall of citrus follows
